Playwright Information: This section of the application should take about five minutes, with minimal prep. (a.) You will be asked to provide the basic personal information we need to process your application such as your name, title of your play, email address, and a brief bio (50 words-with an emphasis on your history as a playwright).

Step 2: About the Work

This is the most involved and important part of the process. This is the material which we will consider during the selection process. Take great care in preparing this section of your application.

- a. You will be asked to supply a brief character breakdown. Please include age and gender in the breakdown (There is a 150-word limit for character breakdown).
- b. Please supply a brief synopsis of your play (75 words). Think of this as an elevator pitch. Be concise.
- c. Statement of objectives (250 words). Help us get to know you. What do you hope to accomplish as a participant of our retreat? How do you intend to utilize your time while on retreat? What do you hope to learn? How can we be of service to you and your play?

*Please do not identify yourself by name in your statement of objectives as QSTC utilizes a BLIND SUBMISSION PROCESS. This statement will be read by our team only after reading the full script.

- d. Once your application is complete, you will select your preferred method of payment and submit the $15.00 USD application fee.

Step 3: If a draft of your script, or a few pages are compiled, please follow these steps to prepare your work before submitting:

1. Remove your name and contact information from the draft/pages. This includes the title page and any page headers/footers that may include your name.
2. Remove any agent or representation's contact information from the script.
3. Please be sure all pages are numbered.
